Big Bill of Keith Vaudeville-Douglas Fairbanks in a Triangle Feature and a Two Reel Keystone Comedy.

For the first half of this wook the management of this popular theatre hav esecured a bill of vaudeville that cannot be equalled anywhere for the money. The feature attraction is Fred J. Gardner and company, presenting p. J. Gardner and company, presenting p. The Yellow Peril, a tense dramatic playlet of international intrigue showning the workings of the United States secret service men. This is the greatest service men. This is the form talented artists, and a special setting is used. The other vaudeville for ture is the Southern Four, four pretty maids in a beautiful harmony offering of old southern airs. This is an act that you will like if you enjoy good singing. In the photoplays another big Douglas Pairbanks feature will be shown. This latest one is called Flirting With Pate, a five part Fine Aris production, and declared by the Now York critics to be the best picture this popular star has ever appeared in. Douglas Fhirbanks needs no recommendation to the patrons of this theatre, and his many admirers will be glad to witness this latest success. The show would not be complete without the two reel Keystone comedy which usually sends everyone them with a smile, and the one on this plete without the two reel Keystons comedy which usually sends everyone borne with a smile, and the one on this bill is no exception. It is called The Surf Girl and shows the famous Keystone diving girls in exhibitions of fancy and high diving. For the last half of the week the management have half of the week the management have half of the week the management have booked Damaged Goods, the big seven part sensational drama, with the original Broadway cast, including Richard Bennett.
